Sheriff Curran Announces Weekend DUI Traffic Patrol

Waukegan, IL – Sheriff Mark Curran announced the Lake County Sheriff's Office is conducting DUI patrols beginning Saturday, May 5 through Sunday, May 6, 2018. Funding for this traffic safety campaign is made possible through a grant provided by the U.S. Department of Transportation and the National Highway Administration, and is administered by the Illinois Department of Transportation.

Sheriff Mark Curran stated, "If you plan on enjoying the first warm weekend, enjoy responsibly. Plan ahead and arrange for a designated driver, a taxi, or choose an alternative ride-sharing option. And remember - always buckle up."

Motorists can expect to see increased patrols and enforcement zones across Lake County as part of the DUI patrols. #DriveSoberGetPulledOver #ClickItOrTicket
