Lake County Sheriff's Merit Commission Accepting Entry-Level Deputy Sheriff Applications

The Lake County Sheriff's Merit Commission is excited to announce the formation of an entry-level certified eligibility list for the position of deputy sheriff. Applications for entry-level deputy sheriff are being accepted through May 31, 2018.

Numerous vacant positions are available to be filled.

After submitting an application, candidates are required to attend a mandatory orientation and physical agility test on June 9, 2018, at Grayslake North High School.

Sheriff Mark Curran said, "The Lake County Sheriff's Office is a premier, accredited, law enforcement organization and we have much to offer. I encourage you to join our team of exceptional staff, enjoy a rewarding and exciting career, serve your community, and be part of our mission in keeping Lake County safe."

Interested candidates should visit the following webpage to begin the application process: www.lakecountyil.gov/432/Merit-Commission

Applications must be submitted prior to the mandatory orientation and physical agility test
