Sheriff's Office Kicks Off Veteran's Coat Drive with Local Law Enforcement Join Us in Giving the Gift of Warmth

The Lake County Sheriff's Office is partnering with the Veteran's Assistance Commission, several local law enforcement agencies and many local high schools to collect coats and outerwear for the Lake County Law Enforcement Veteran's Coat Drive. The collection period begins Wednesday, September 5 and ends on Wednesday, November 7.

Sheriff Mark Curran stated, "I'd like to thank Metro Self Storage in Lake Bluff for donating the collection boxes and the local law enforcement agencies and partner high schools for continuing this fine tradition of collecting outerwear for veterans and their families. There is no greater gift than giving."

The Lake County Sheriff's Office and our law enforcement partners invite you to join us in bringing gently used coats, gloves, hats, socks and scarves to one of the following locations:

- Lake County Sheriff's Office, 25 S Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue, Waukegan
- Lake County Sheriff's Office, 1301 N Milwaukee Avenue, Libertyville (off Winchester Road)
- Lake County Coroner's Office, 26 N Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue, Waukegan
