Warren Township Death Investigation

On February 2, 2019, at approximately 9:50PM, Lake County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to an address in the 36500 block of North Route 41, Warren Township, for a report of a vehicle on fire. Gurnee Firefighters arrived and extinguished the fire.

After the fire was extinguished, firefighters and sheriff's deputies observed a badly burned body inside the vehicle. Notification was made to the Lake County Coroner's Office and coroner's staff responded to the scene.

An inspection of the vehicle revealed it had been previously driven by a woman reported as missing from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Identification of the body located inside the car has not yet been confirmed.

The investigation into this incident remains ongoing by the Lake County Sheriff's Office, Lake County Coroner's Office, and Office of the State Fire Marshal.

Further information will be released as it becomes available.
