WHAT IS WAYFINDING?

CORBIN DESIGN DEFINES WAYFINDING AS:

direction for people in motion

THE WAYFINDING SYSTEM WILL:

Identify & orient users to the network of paths & trails

Connect towns, destinations, & other transportation options

Be flexible & inexpensive to maintain

Encourage exploring

The system should be apparent when users need it, & transparent when they don't.