MEDIA RELEASE

Missing Gurnee-Area Woman

The Lake County Sheriff's Office is seeking the public's assistance in locating a missing 35-year-old female. Rebecca L. Crabtree was last seen by her family at her residence in the 18000 block of West Stockton Court, Unincorporated Gurnee on June 16th.

At that time, Crabtree was driving a black 2011 GMC Yukon (Illinois Registration AC80645). She left without her cellphone and without her other personal belongings. The GMV has damage on the rear driver's side, has black duct tape around the passenger-side mirror, and does not have a front license plate.

Crabtree is described as being 5'06," 180 pounds, brown hair, and blue eyes. Crabtree has gone missing in the past and has been located in Park Ridge, Woodstock, and Lake Forest.

If you see Crabtree, her vehicle, or have information about her current whereabouts, please dial 911, so her well-being can be checked.
