MEDIA RELEASE

Sheriff Idleburg, Treasurer Kim, and Wauconda-Area Stakeholders to Give Away Facemasks, Sanitizer

Sheriff John D. Idleburg and Treasurer Holly Kim are pleased to invite the community to a free facemask and hand sanitizer giveaway. The event is being hosted by Sheriff Idleburg & Treasurer Kim and sponsored by Messiah Lutheran Church, Lake County United Way, Wauconda Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Village of Wauconda.

This will be a 'no-contact,' drive-through event. Each car will receive one bag which will contain four masks, hand sanitizer, and some goodies from the Lake County Sheriff's Office.

Where: Messiah Lutheran Church
25225 West Ivanhoe Road
Wauconda, IL 60084

When: Saturday, December 12, 2020
10:00AM – 12:00PM

Sheriff John Idleburg said, "I am pleased to partner with Treasurer Holly Kim and other community stakeholders to provide facemasks and hand sanitizer to anyone who needs them. Giving back to the community in small or large ways is very important to me, especially around the holidays."

Treasurer Holly Kim added, "With COVID cases higher now than last Spring, it's most important to get these masks in the hands of our residents. Thank you to United Way for supplying thousands of masks and to the Wauconda Village and Chamber for hosting. We look forward to seeing you."
