Provide Your
Comments/Ideas!

The project website will introduce the project to the public through text, videos, and exhibits. There will be an interactive map with comment forms (with instructional videos) for the public to submit comments, issues, concerns, and ideas about the Hainesville Road corridor. The comments will be tracked and become part of the formal public involvement process.

All correspondence regarding this project should be sent to:

Chuck Gleason, Project Manager

Lake County Division of Transportation
