Youth Conservation Corps

YCC mentors and empowers young adults through education and training in life skills, career pathways and environmental stewardship. Youth Conservation Corps works with youth ages 16-24 years old who are looking to obtain their GED or high school diploma, develop life skills and get started on a career pathway. YCC is a workforce readiness program that provides training and support in career pathways such as Construction and IT. Through those pathways, Youth Conservation Corps offers opportunities to earn industry-recognized certifications in each of those career pathways.
