

Section 409. Exempted Signs.

The following signs are not considered structures under this ordinance and are therefore exempt from these regulations:

- ❖ A sign identifying the family residing in a residential dwelling unit which is less than 1 square foot in size;
- ❖ Incidental signs less than 2 square foot in size which provide directions to motor vehicles, bicycles or pedestrians, such as "No Parking," "Exit," etc., providing these signs do not contain any other copy with the exception of a logo;
- ❖ Any signs totally within a building;
- ❖ Realty signs less than 4 square feet in size providing dwelling status information, such as "For Rent," or "For Sale" and identifying information;
- ❖ Traffic control signs erected by or pursuant to federal, state or village authority;
- ❖ Political signs within 30 days prior to an election and extending to two days after that said election, provided the number of signs for any one candidate do not exceed two per lot and 4 square feet per sign.
