

on any one premise. Such signs shall only be placed on premises to which they refer.

- b. Real estate "open house" signs shall be allowed to be placed on neighbors properties at street intersections only and only with the property owner prior permission. Such signs shall be allowed to be displayed on Wednesdays between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and on Saturdays and Sundays between the hours of 12:00 noon and 5:00 p.m. The information provided on such signs shall be limited to the company identification, the words "open house" and a directional arrow. Not more than one such sign shall be allowed on any one premises.
- (4) Banners, pennants, and other temporary signs. Written application shall be made to the building commissioner, stating the type, size, material, attachments, and specific location of all such temporary signs. A public entertainment or specific event message may not be displayed more than 14 days before the event and shall be removed within seven days after the event. Any commercial grand opening activity, sale, or any other information message, and any other private, nonprofit organization informational message, excluding that of a governmental agency, shall be limited to one 30-day period per year, per establishment. Banners and temporary signs shall be limited to 50 square feet in area, mounted to the building or within three feet of the building, and shall not obstruct the passage of pedestrians or motor vehicles in any way. Searchlights and portable signs shall not be permitted. Except for public bodies, all temporary signs shall be confined to the private property and the premises being advertised. No temporary signs shall be erected, installed or placed without first obtaining a permit from the village.
  - (5) Political and public-issue signs. Signs announcing candidates seeking public political office, public issues, or other political announcements are permitted subject to the following:
    - a. Political and public issue signs shall not be displayed longer than 30 calendar days prior to an election and shall be removed within seven days following an election, except that such signs located on residential property may be displayed during any period of time.
    - b. The area of political or public-issue signs shall not exceed six square feet.
    - c. The height of political and public-issue signs shall not exceed four feet above grade. It is unlawful to place signs near the intersection of two streets or driveways that obstruct the vision of drivers from safely maneuvering their motor vehicle.
    - d. Political and public-issue signs are prohibited within all public and private rights-of-way, including islands and medians. Signs placed within the public right-of-way will be summarily removed and discarded.
    - e. Political and public-issue signs shall be confined to private property and common property held by a legally recorded homeowners associations, only.
    - f. Political and public-issue signs shall not be placed on any property without the consent of the property owner.
    - g. Political and public-issue signs shall be self-supporting and shall not be affixed to any structure, building, pole, tree, mailbox, or fence.
    - h. Political and public-issue signs shall not be displayed within 100 feet of the front door of any polling place.
  - (6) Window signs. All window signage shall comply with the following requirements:
    - a. Signs shall be located fully within the interior of the building and attached directly to or mounted within